Workplace assessment (APV) in HENNING LARSEN ARCHITECTS

All companies are required to conduct a workplace assessment. APV is designed to assess how satisfied you are with your workplace and identify any problems relating to the physical or psychological work. Your reply is therefore an invaluable help in the effort to make your work better. It is also the duty of the employees to actively participate in the improvement of the working environment and the WA's employees the opportunity to highlight any. problems in the working environment. Therefore, we will appreciate if you will spend 15 minutes to complete the form.

The survey is anonymous and data is treated confidentially. To ensure anonymity, performed APV of Cprofiles which also supports our MUS process. Data will not be displayed at the individual level, but ONLY at the group level. This ensures that each employee can not be recognized.

The questionnaire covers the following main areas and are approved by your safety committees:

- Background information
- Indoor
- Ergonomics and space
- Working in the model workshop
- Working conditions for expatriate employees
- Security, injuries and risk at work
- Physical working environment
- Sick leave and health
